3 LEAKS WE FOUND (live-verified)

LEAK 1: A pre-IPO dairy major with 3 live ads Paneer, curd, ghee, cheese and ice cream are searched with high commercial intent - and every one of those searches is a chance for Amul or a private label to be chosen instead of you.
LEAK 2: Two properties, two journeys A Wix corporate site plus a separate Shopify store splits the paid click, the brand story and the purchase path. Consolidating the handoff is a direct conversion win.
LEAK 3: No dairy subscription visible Dairy is the most subscription-friendly category in India - milk, curd and paneer weekly. Subscribe-and-save would add predictable, higher-LTV revenue before the IPO window.

3 QUICK WINS (14-DAY ROADMAP) → FIX LEAKS + LOWER CPA

DAY 1-5: Build the category search moat Full-funnel Google search across brand, category and competitor terms ('paneer online', 'curd home delivery', 'ghee') with product-specific landing pages and clean per-SKU-family tracking.
DAY 6-10: Launch subscribe-and-save Monthly dairy bundles (milk, curd, paneer) with free-delivery thresholds and WhatsApp reminders - the highest-LTV mechanic in Indian dairy.
DAY 11-14: Unify the digital journey Pick the Shopify store as the single purchase destination, keep the corporate site for brand/investor/B2B audiences, and measure per SKU family to know what spend buys.
